

Philosophy Kata Christon: A Pastor's Guided Introduction to Philosophy According to Christ Himself for the Gospel Ministry

by
Rev. Gregory P. Schulz, D.Min., Ph.D.<sup>1</sup>

You're invited!

You're cordially invited to participate in this six-week open and free online course beginning 11 January, 2016.

Philosophy Kata Christon (a studied reference to Colossians 2:8-15) is intended for parish pastors, but I also have in mind deaconesses and other professional church workers, as well as motivated lay believers with my effort to provide an original guided introduction to philosophy, the disciplined befriending of wisdom, in light of the historical reality that Jesus of Nazareth is God incarnate and thus the Wisdom that philosophy seeks. This is what the apostle Paul writes in 1 Corinthians 1, in point of fact.

To learn more and to enroll

You can see my video overview and then sign up for Philosophy Kata Christon at [https://openeducation.blackboard.com/mooc-catalog/courseDetails/view?

course\_id=\_799\_1](https://openeducation.blackboard.com/mooc-catalog/courseDetails/view?course_id=_799_1)

Philosophy KATA CHRISTON

φ → / < ◌

---

<sup>1</sup> Professor of Philosophy, Concordia University Wisconsin
Advisory Board and Guest Faculty of DOXOLOGY: The Lutheran Center for Spiritual Care and Counsel
Author of The Problem of Suffering: A Father's Hope from CPH
Host of LutheranPhilosopher.com